

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 19.

A WELL PLACED FAMILY.—There is a rumor that the Crown Prince of Holland will marry the Princess Thyra, a sister of the Princess of Wales. This will in the course of nature make the Princess Queen of Holland. The King of Denmark, her father, is one of the poorest monarchs in Europe, and has perhaps the smallest kingdom. He has done remarkably well with his large family. One daughter will probably be Empress of Russia, the other Queen of England. One son is King of Greece, another will be King of Denmark, and now another crown comes into his family. To have children reigning over England, Russia, Greece, Denmark and Holland is a great achievement in the way of honors and power.—New York Herald.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.—New York has a compulsory education law. No child under fourteen years of age is allowed to be put out to employment unless a teacher or school officer certifies to the fact that he has been taught for fourteen weeks of that year the branches of a common school education. And for each and every year thereafter the employer is held bound to allow him a similar course of education for at least fourteen weeks under a penalty of fifty dollars for each and every offence. The fines so collected are to be turned over to the school fund of the district, and it is made the duty of the school teachers to enforce them.

THE FENCE LAW.—Election Notice.—As consequence to be held on the 28th of May, for county officers, a poll will be opened and the votes taken upon the question of the repeal of the present Fence Law. Mr. Chas. Potter has been appointed commissioner at Accotink, and Geo. Kiston at Falmouth for this purpose.
